Haystack Beavers Conservatives Celebrate

AT TOWNWORTH.

A LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING

In response to posters announcing a gathering of the Liberal Conservatives of the Riding of Addington, at the Village of Townworth, on Saturday, March 26th, a large and enthusiastic crowd assembled. They were represented by members of all parties of the riding-men who had worked hard in the late campaign, and rallied up a large majority for their popular representative, Mr. James Field, M.P. - men of whom any constituency might well feel proud. The R.C. of T. brought a crowd from points along the north and south. The morning train brought quite a number from the town of the county, and more were added by the mid-day train. It was found one o'clock that the crowd began to disperse into the village from the surrounding country.

Much disappointment was felt in the morning over the non-arrival of Dr. Willoughby and Col. Mulholland, but it was fully explained when they arrived by the 1.30 train. When it was found that Mr. James Field had been at the meeting, and that they would be at the meeting, much disappointment was felt in the morning over the non-arrival of Dr. Willoughby and Col. Mulholland, but it was fully explained when they arrived by the 1.30 train.
